

Data Protection

Art. 13 GDPR Information on data protection

We, the Nordentoft Equestrian Performance & Business Center, process your data which you send to us by e-mail to enable us to communicate with you and we store this data on our servers. The respective controller is resulting from the signature of the e-mail sender.

Disclosure of your data

We do not transfer your data to third parties. The data will only be used for the above-mentioned purpose. Service providers are helping us with the processing of your data. These service providers operate, for example, our servers on which your data is stored and are strictly dependent on our instructions while processing your data.

Retention of your data

The data will only be stored for the duration of statutory retention obligations. Subsequently, or if you ask us to do so, we will delete your personal data.

Rights as data subject

As you are affected by the data processing, you have the right to information about the data stored by us, the right to correction, deletion, restriction of processing, transfer of your data and the right to object against the further processing. In addition, you may revoke your consent to the processing of your data, provided you have given us such consent. Finally, you have the right to complain to a supervisory authority if you believe that we are illegally processing your data.
